
Progress on Incorporating Climate Change into Management of California's Water Resources

Report is being prepared by the California Department of Water Resources.

List of Chapters:

- Chapter 1: Introduction
- Chapter 2: Potential Impacts of Climate Change on California's Water Resources
- Chapter 3: DWR Climate Change Studies
- Chapter 4: Impacts of Climate Change on State Water Project and Central Valley Project Operations
- Chapter 5: Impacts of Climate Change on the Sacramento-San Joaquin Delta
- Chapter 6: Climate Change Impacts on Flood Management
- Chapter 7: Climate Change Impacts on Evapotranspiration
- Chapter 8: Future Directions

The report is currently undergoing peer review and revision. For further information contact:

Jamie Anderson, Ph.D., P.E.
DWR-Reclamation Climate Change Team
Modeling Support Branch
California Dept. of Water Resources
916-654-5455
jamiea@water.ca.gov

Francis Chung, Ph.D., P.E.
Principal Engineer
Modeling Support Branch
California Dept. of Water Resources
916-653-5924
chung@water.ca.gov